

Hamlet, Hamlet

By Willi Rose

cmi Bb Ab

Late one stor-my night Lake El - si - nore was blown a - round. A sea ser-pent named Ham-let lost his way and swam a - ground. Ham - let looked all ov - er and he saw a great big hole with trucks and men in-stall-ing walls and lights and chairs and poles. Ham - let fell and bent his tail, a play-er came a - long. He band-aged poor ole Ham-let's tail and then took him home!_____

Bb cmi Gb

F A G

Bb A Db F

Bb Eb Bb Db Bb Eb Db F

(chorus) Ham - let, Ham - let. Red and tan and blue. Ham - let, Ham - let. Ham-let we love you.____

cmi Bb Ab

_____ (verse 2) The base-ball team got in a jam, the bot-tom of the ninth. The Storm was up with two outs down, the boys were three be - hind. Ham - let stepped up to the plate, he stared the pitch- er down. Strike one, strike two, the um-pire held, but Ham-let stood his ground. The fans, they did the wave that night, the best they'd ev - er done. The on - ly thing to save the day , a

Ab Bb cmi

Gb F A

G Bb A

Db Bb Eb Bb Db
 Grand Slam Home Run! _____ (chorus) Ham - let, Ham - let. Red and tan and blue. _____

Bb Eb Db F cmi
 Ham - let, Ham - let. Ham - let, we love you. _____ (verse 3) The pitch drove in - to home plate, it was

Bb Ab Bb fast - er than a jet. Ham - let swung, the ball took flight. Ev - 'ry one held his breath. He

cmi Gb F took off down the first base line, the fans jumped to their feet. The play - ers took a chance and came in

A G Bb
 home - one, two and three. The right field - er head - ed for the ball; down, down it came. It

A Db F Bb Eb burned right through his glove and the Storm won the game! _____ (chorus) Ham - let, Ham - let.

Bb Db Bb Eb Db F
 Red and tan and blue. _____ Ham - let, Ham - let. Ham - let, we love you _____ (repeat chorus)